

“Hands down, the freshest, most inventive children’s music duo working today.”

Moira McCormick, Billboard Magazine

Known as “Canada’s Sing-Along Superstars,” Judy & David are the Juno award-winning stars of TV and stage and are now among the most successful children’s entertainers in North America. Since 1993, their music has been acclaimed for its ability to engage a young audience’s active involvement at every turn.

Television • The long-running Judy & David’s Boom Box television series has been a staple of Canada’s number one preschool network, Treehouse TV, since 1999. The show has maintained a huge loyal following among young children and their parents for its ability to actively engage viewers with music and movement. Further television projects are now in development for the US and Canada.

Recording • Judy & David have become one of the most prolific children’s recording acts in North America, with 16 albums and four video releases to their credit and over five million recordings sold around the world. Judy & David are the recipients of the SOCAN Award for Children’s Music, recognizing the outstanding success of their original compositions. Their Live In a Shoe recording won the prestigious Juno award (equivalent of the US Grammy award) for “Best Children’s Recording”. They have received numerous other Juno nominations and the coveted Parents Choice Gold Award.

Education • Judy & David’s words and music are now enhancing the educational experience of millions of school children in North America. The duo has partnered with some of the worlds’ top educational publishers to produce a variety of educational resources such as the hugely successful MathJam program for Nelson Educational Ltd.

Live Performance • Judy & David are now one of North America’s most celebrated children’s music acts, performing live for over 100,000 people per year. Concerts with major symphony orchestras, original musicals, musical work-out adventures, children’s choir galas, and good old-fashioned sing-alongs... Judy & David’s shows span a spectrum of formats but have one thing in common: their music is not a spectator sport. Their ability to appeal to both parents and children, and to engage them as part of the musical experience, has helped propel Judy & David to the upper ranks of the international children’s music business.

JiggaJump • Judy & David’s ability to actively engage an audience is being put to good use as they increasingly turn their attention to the message of active, healthy living. JiggaJump was developed in partnership with experts in children’s health and physical education. Its unique combination of music, movement, and narrative adventure has been very successful in inspiring physical activity among young children. Since the 2007 launch, the JiggaJump Educational Program and JiggaJump Live concert tours have already inspired hundreds of thousands of school children to JiggaJump!
